

Future of Copernicus Climate Change Service C3S and Copernicus Atmosphere Monitoring Service CAMS meeting at FMI HQ 1 February

Agenda

10.00 - 11.30: ECMWF: Juan Garces de Marcilla, Director of Copernicus Services
Jean-Noel Thepaut, Head of Copernicus Climate Change Service C3S
Vincent-Henri Peuch, Head of Copernicus Atmosphere Monitoring Service CAMS

- CAMS and C3S status, with a focus on C3S and and Climate data store deployment
- ECMWF's views on the CAMS and C3S services evolutions beyond 2020

11.30 – 12.15: Lunch

12.15 – 13.00: Public user needs in Finland for C3S and CAMS services evolutions beyond 2020, Hilppa Gregow and Johanna Tamminen, FMI (30 minutes presentation + 15 minutes questions)

13.00 – 13.30: Public and commercial user needs in Estonia for C3S and CAMS services evolutions beyond 2020, ? (20 minutes presentation + 10 minutes questions)

13.30 - 14.00: Public and commercial user needs in Latvia for C3S and CAMS service evolutions beyond 2020, ? (20 minutes presentation + 10 minutes questions)

14.00 - 14.30: Public and commercial user needs in Latvia for C3S and CAMS service evolutions beyond 2020, ? (20 minutes presentation + 10 minutes questions)

14.30 – 14.45: Coffee break

14.45 – 15.15: Consultancy services on air quality views on Core services evolution, Aiga Kāla, ELLE, a SME active in the three Baltic states, (20 minutes presentation + 10 minutes questions)

15.15 – 15.30: Allergene service views on evolution, Ingrida Šauliene, Sauliai University, Lithuania (20 minutes presentation + 10 minutes questions)

15.30 – 15.45: Evolution visions for Downstream services computing environments, Jyri Heilimo, FMI (20 minutes presentation + 10 minutes questions)

15.45 – 16.15: Summary and end discussions.